TRANS-DISCIPLINARY ASPECTS

In a project which combines multi disciplines a general understanding of the other disciplinary culture must be created to generate the basis for a productive and fruitful collaboration. Besides respect and tolerance a common language and new paradigms amongst other denominators need to be established.